

Mainland China's NGOs Program "Experience the Reality in China"

Program: Environment

- Location: Beijing
- Job description:
 - Fundraising for particular projects
 - Education (trainings)
 - Marketing and Promotion materials
 - Research and designing new programs
 - Networking and building relationship with NGOs
- Requirements:
 - Project management experience preferred
 - Knowledge on Environment issues
 - Particular skills (e.g. marketing, fundraising, etc.)
 - Fluent English required, basic Chinese is preferred
- Duration : 2-3 months (starts April/May)

Program: HIV/AIDS Prevention

- Location: Beijing, Shanghai
- Job description:
 - Support fundraising and implementation of community projects
 - Raising Awareness of HIV/AIDS through diverse projects
 - Education of people and running trainings
 - New programs design and development
- Requirements:
 - Experience in social work preferred
 - Knowledge about HIV/AIDS preferred
 - Fluent English required
 - Good communication skill
- Duration : 2-3 months (starts April/May)

Program: Education SD (NGOs, High Schools)

- Location: Beijing, Shanghai
- Job description:
 - Fundraising, Marketing
 - Running concrete project
 - NGOs work – depends on issues
 - Education – events, trainings
 - High Schools lectures/presentations
- Requirements:
 - Experience in teaching preferred
 - Knowledge about Sustainable Development (SD) preferred
 - Fluent English required
 - Good communication skill
- Duration : 2 months (March, Summer)

I feel that, through Hello China Project, I have gained a penetrating insight to the Chinese culture, people, and living and working styles. In comparison with my personal trip to Shanghai last winter, my stay in Beijing through Hello China project has been authentic, thorough, and uncensored. I have gone through a wide spectrum of experiences ranging from using every kind of public transportation to understanding the Chinese collectivistic living and working habits.

Soomin Ryu (USA)

Contact: Nina Rociakova
nina.rociakova@gmail.com

www.aiesec.cn